

HOT FLASHES.

Women in middle age often complain of hot flashes. They are at that stage of life—when their delicate organism needs a tonic and helping-hand which only Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can give them. Many women suffer needlessly from girlhood to womanhood and from motherhood to old age—with headache, dizziness or headache. A woman often becomes sleepless, nervous, "broken-down," irritable and feels tired from morning to night. When pains and aches rack the womanly system at frequent intervals, ask your neighbor about

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Mrs. J. Linnor, of 221 S. Benton Street, Baltimore, Md., says: "I wrote you about nine months ago, telling you of my condition. I have a fine baby girl—she weighed nine pounds when born. She is my third child and the strongest of them all. My suffering was only for two hours. I took several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of Dr. Pierce's Smart-Weed. I never had a well day before I took your medicine. I was surprised how well I felt—could eat—was always hungry, and never had a sick stomach. The nurse who was with me said the medicine was wonderful because I got along so nicely after having had so much trouble before. She intends to recommend it to all her suffering patients. Everybody is astonished at me because I only weighed 90 pounds before and now I weigh 135. I have had several ladies come to me and ask about Dr. Pierce's medicine. I am willing to recommend it to all who suffer and want help. If any want information I will be glad to give it to them."

Garrard Chief 1835.

I confidently assert he has as much natural style as any living horse. He is more like his great sire Chester Dare 10, than any colt Chester Dare ever got. Garrard Chief won the championship of the South West at Dallas State Fair in 1908, 1909 and 1910 and also at Ft. Worth Horse Show in 1910 and during that time his colts won more than any other herd shown in saddle classes and Garrard Belle by Garrard Chief was shown last year at three years old 14 times and won 13 ribbons. ## PENSIONS DECREASING

Records Show Rapid Falling Off in List of Beneficiaries

Washington, May 20.—That the crest of the waves in pension payments has been passed appears in the footings that are gradually being made as the end of the fiscal year approaches in the Pension Office. There will be a much larger falling off this year than last in the total number of pensioners and a corresponding reduction of the aggregate outlay in pension payments.

The grand roll lost 28,985 names last year, and there was a falling off in the payments amounting to $2,784,442, of a little less than 100 for each pensioner.

The gigantic proportions of the pension system may be conceived when the aggregate of expenditure on the account of the various wars in which this country has been involved is examined.

Of all the names on the pension roll a large proportion will always be those of widows and children, the dependents of those who fought their country's battles. At present there are 557,293 names of soldiers on the rolls, and 317,403 of dependents. On the pension roll resulting from the civil war there are 624,884 names of soldiers and 303,400 of dependents.

Up to the beginning of this year the United States had paid on account of pensions for the civil war, exclusive of pensions for regular troops, the sum of $3,985,719,836, a larger amount than the National debt incurred by the prosecution of the war. The records of the expenditure for pensions following the revolution are incomplete but the total is estimated at $70,000,000. The pensions because of the war of 1812 up to this year amounted to $45,553,024.

The war with Mexico cost in pensions $45,279,686. The pension cost of the war with Spain has been $34,142,967. Our Indian wars which have been little ones, sporadic and intermittent, have caused a pension bill expense of $11,192,205.

The last soldier of the Revolutionary War died in 1806. By the rule of three the sole survivor of the war of 1861-5 should linger on life's stage until 1948 or thirty-six years longer.

One of the interesting consequences of this disappearance of the pension roll will be the extinction of the "flow-back" to the States which has for the past half-century been a powerful determining factor in the development of business and the stimulation of local enterprise and improvement. At present Ohio gets the largest benefit from the pension system, her total number of pensioners being 86,474, and her receipt on account of pensions $15,638,286. Pennsylvania comes next with $14,646,000 and New York third with $13,172,000. Illinois has fourth place with $10,833,000 and Indiana fifth with $10,281,000.

KIDNEY TROUBLE RELIEVED IN TWO HOURS

A Speedy Cure.

I derived so much benefit from the use of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root that I believe it will be most important for the public to know of its worth.

Last November I was suffering severely with kidney and bladder trouble. The burning pain was terrible. I sent to you for one trial bottle of Swamp-Root and it relieved me in about two hours. After taking the small trial bottle, could feel no more pain, so purchased one fifty cent bottle of Swamp-Root. After taking the contents have not felt one pain from the kidneys or bladder since.

You are at liberty to publish this testimonial should you wish to.

Yours very respectfully,

W. H. WARREN,

Peruna Secrets You Should Know

Golden Seal, the root of the above plant, is a very useful medicine. Many people gather it in our rich woodlands during the summer. Few people know how valuable it is in dyspepsia, catarrh, and as a general tonic.

Many thousand pounds of this root are used each year in the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna. This fact explains why everybody uses Peruna for catarrh.

CALLAHAN'S DEATH

Removes Last of Picturesque Feud Leaders From Kentucky

The death of Ed Callahan removes the leading and probably the last of the prominent feud characters in Breathitt county. He was about fifty years of age, and for twenty years had figured prominently in the criminal and political affairs of this county.

About fifteen years ago he was indicted and tried in court there on the charge of killing James Deaton and was acquitted. Deaton was a neighbor of his and trouble arose between them as to conflict in business. The killing of Deaton and the trial of Callahan engendered bitter feeling between the two families and they had never become reconciled.

Previous to that time Callahan had been charged with the assassination of Capt. William Strong, who was killed while riding along the public highway, the shots coming from the roadside. Indictments followed, but Callahan was never tried. Up to this time Callahan had not figured prominently in politics, nor had he been a candidate for any office in Breathitt county.

Callahan's real notoriety dates from his election to the office of sheriff of Breathitt county in November 1901, at the same time James Hargis was elected as County Judge, and from that date these two men were fast friends, business and political associates until the death of James Hargis on February 6, 1908.

Callahan's election was contested and as a result bitterness and strife arose between these two leaders on the one hand and strong leaders against them, but the contest terminated favorably to Callahan and he held the office.

James B. Marcum, who was assassinated in Jackson on May 4, 1903, was the attorney against Callahan in the election contest and he was killed before the case was finally decided in the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

In February 1902, in a fight in Jackson between Ben Hargis, brother of Judge Hargis, and Tom Cockrill, both were wounded. Hargis was taken to the home of Judge Hargis, where he died two days later. Cockrill was taken to the home of his guardian, Dr. B. D. Cox. He was treated there and when sufficiently recovered was taken to the Breathitt county jail. Dr. Cox treated him and helped to protect him and Cockrill recovered. About the first of April 1902, Dr. Cox was killed while passing along the streets of Jackson one Sunday night, the shots came from the barn of Judge Hargis, and at a time when Callahan was at the home of Judge Hargis.

From Down In Texas.

Renewing for his I. J. again Rev. M. G. Murphy writes from San Marcos, Texas.

"Crops are good but about three weeks late, corn is from waist to shoulder high, all kinds of garden stuff is now on the market. There are hundreds of ears of onions being shipped from southern and south-west Texas, new potatoes are $2.50, old onions (shipped in as potatoes will not keep through fall) $2 string beans 25c per gallon, tomatoes 25c dozen, onions $2, best northern flour $3.25 per 100 best Texas flour $3.10, meal $7.50 bushel, bacon 15 to 20c per pound, steak 12 to 15c roast 10 to 13c, eggs 15c, butter 30c. The second crop of alfalfa is being cut and is selling at $18 per ton. Cotton looks fine and the acreage is large. Politics warm with Wilson, and Roosevelt in the lead. Tell all the people to stand by Helm."

Mrs. Rose A. Freeman, Clifford Va., says they have long used Foley Remedies and want to say a good word for them. She writes: "Foley Kidney Pills cured my husband of a long standing kidney trouble, after he had taken other medicines without relief. We would not be without Foley & Co.'s medicines in our house for many times their cost. Shugars and Tanner.

Would Draw Crowd

In a home talent minstrel show, given at Stanford the other night, Judge Jack Menelee presided as interloper. If Judge would engage a hall and give a demonstration of his thrashing of blind tiger operators, he would "draw" like an old-fashioned flaxseed poltice.—Danville Messenger.

H. A. Waggoner, Alvon, W. Va., says that Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is the best medicine for coughs and colds he has ever known. He says: "Every man and woman tells me it is the best they have ever used and whoever has used it once, always comes back for it again." There are no opiates in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it is safest for children. Shugars and Tanner.

The Peevish Child Needs a Laxative

It is natural for a child to laugh and play and when it sulk drowsily or cries you may depend on it something physical is the matter. If you see no evidences of a serious ailment you will not be wrong if you quietly give it a dose of mild laxative that evening on putting it to bed.

The remedy most generally recommended for this purpose is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which mothers throughout the country have been giving their children for a quarter of a century. Today thousands of families are using it where hundreds used it then, and there must be good reason for this word of mouth recommendation.

It is admittedly the perfect laxative for children, women, old people and all others who need a gentle bowel stimulant and not a violent salt, cathartic pill or doctored water. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will act gently, and when taken before retiring will bring complete satisfaction in the morning.

After a short use of this remedy all forms of outside aid can be dispensed with and nature will again act alone.

All classes of good American people keep it in the home for ill of the stomach, liver and bowels, and among the thousands who have written the doctor that they will never be without it are Mrs. J. W. Haynes, Brady, Ky., and Mrs. E. L. Weeks, 174 W. 1st St., Owensboro, Ky. A dose of it has saved many a person from a serious illness.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.
